A Post "Mother's Day" Reflection

Mother's Day gave me the opportunity to appreciate my mother, applaud my wife for the most excellent job she has done as a mother and admire my daughter as she is experiencing motherhood with a two year old.

Last week I had the joy of visiting a woman 88 years of age. She has been my friend for many years and I have come to refer to her affectionately as "mom." She has her own three sons who are about my age. But to me, over the years I have seen her as a wonderful godly woman who imitates Jesus. I have had the privilege of knowing many older women who have incarnated a gracious and Christ-like manner of life. Their names should be included in Hebrews 11 to be inducted into the biblical hall of faith!

They have demonstrated a life of faithfulness amid many difficult circumstances. They have prayed faithfully for me and my family over the years. They have loved me and I love them. I thank God for them.

It was Paul in I Corinthians 11:1 who said, "Be imitators of me just as also I am of Christ." And again in 4:16, "Therefore I exhort you, be imitators of me."

Who are you imitating?
Who is imitating you?

Serving Him with you
Until He comes for us,
Fred
