Harvey, A New Word in the Lexicon of Life for Human Suffering

I live in Dallas which is dry. Many of my friends and co-workers live in the Houston area where it is anything but dry. We all experience suffering, no one is exempt. The question for the Christian in the midst of suffering is; Do we put God on trial or does God put our faith to the test?

Cataclysms, catastrophes, and conflicts have always been part of the human predicament. How do we as Christians keep disasters from becoming ruinous in our lives? How do we make sure suffering of any type does not dethrone God in our lives, debase our integrity, and destroy our faith? There is no better answer than this quote from Oswald Chambers:

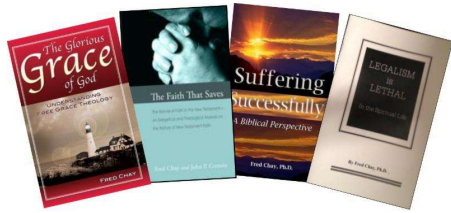

Serving Him with you
Until He comes for us,
Fred

"Faith is not about everything turning out OK, Faith is about being OK no matter how things turn out."
